

In It to Win: Virtual Tutoring and Homework Drop-in

What is In It to Win It?

“In It to Win It” is a fun and welcoming virtual tutoring and homework drop-in facilitated for and by Kingston and Frontenac teens. Upper-year secondary student volunteers provide online tutoring to younger teens in Grades 7 and 8 and older teens requiring special academic support. Under the supervision of a KFPL programmer, volunteer tutors will work one-on-one, or with small subject groups, to mentor and motivate emerging learners.

Tutor Qualifications and Responsibilities

Volunteer tutors must be upper-year secondary students comfortable with the course content of various subjects.

Ability to motivate and mentor younger teens and peers in a youth-centered program

Ability to work with a diverse population with a variety of skill levels in different subjects

Strong interpersonal skills and coaching experience an asset

Volunteers must be able to participate weekly, on Tuesday afternoons from 3:30 pm to 5:00 pm. Repeat unjustified absences will result in a volunteer’s removal from the program.

“In It to Win It” will be offered as an online experience via the library’s Zoom account. As meetings and events will be virtual, participants will need access to an Internet-enabled computer with a web cam and microphone.

To apply

Please email Graeme Langdon, Teen & New Adult Librarian, at glangdon@kfpl.ca with your name, grade, school, contact information, and a short description of how you meet the volunteer qualifications.

Please indicate which school subjects you are comfortable tutoring at the Grade 7 and 8 levels, and which subjects you are comfortable tutoring for Grades 9, 10, and 11.
