FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Children's summer programs go digital

Get those shakers ready—children's programming has returned this summer in an online format!

Children can enjoy their favourite library programs, including Family Storytime, and Baby and Me, along with some special summer programs.

"There are many opportunities for children to develop literacy skills this summer by participating in library programs," said Kristen Lemay, Programming and Outreach Librarian. "Children can learn about wild animals in our Words from the Wild program, listen to French stories and songs in L'heure du conte en français, and share their favourite books with new friends in the Junior Book Club. Our programming team is excited to connect with our youngest patrons in a new format."

Subscribe to the KFPL YouTube channel (www.youtube.com/user/kfplweb) to enjoy special guest performers, Meredith's Maker Lab: STEM Edition, and other fun and educational content.
