Public Library to host Indigenous Advisory Council Participation Meeting

Members of all communities are welcome to attend this meeting to discuss the formation of an Indigenous Advisory Council (IAC) for the Kingston Frontenac Public Library. The IAC will guide the library in developing Indigenous collections, programming, resources and spaces. This is a unique opportunity for the public to help shape this exciting initiative.

Attendees will also be able to submit their candidacy for the council.

Takes place on Wednesday, February 27, at Calvin Park Branch, from 6 to 7:30 p.m.
Free.

Please contact Jacob Miller, 613-549-8888, ext.3522, jmiller@kfpl.ca with any questions or responses.
