Learn About Ancestry Library Edition and Other Genealogical Tools

Whether you're considering creating a family tree for the first time or tracking down a "brick-wall" ancestor, Kingston Frontenac Public Library (KFPL) is here to help! On Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m., librarian Jo Stanbridge will give a slideshow and talk about how to use the library's genealogy resources, including the popular subscription service Ancestry Library Edition. This repeat of talks given last autumn and winter will take place at the Isabel Turner library branch.

Ancestry is arguably the world's largest online genealogy resource and is an invaluable tool for anyone working on their family tree. Learn how to access Ancestry Library Edition free of charge from within any KFPL branch, and how to use other free resources and strategies to grow your family tree.

This event is open to all, but seating is limited. To avoid disappointment, please register in advance. Registration opens online at events.kfpl.ca and by phone at (613) 549-8888 at 9 a.m. on Saturday, November 4. For more information, visit www.kfpl.ca.

A second genealogy talk, DNA Testing and Genealogy, will be given on Tuesday, December 5, by Joyce Fingland of the Kingston Branch, Ontario Genealogical Society. Registration for the December 5 session will open at 9 a.m. on November 25.
