FOR RELEASE APRIL 12, 2023

Unleash your love for reading with Books and Barks Dog Walking Book Club

Ready to try a new kind of book club? The Kingston Frontenac Public Library's Books and Barks Dog Walking Book Club is a fun and exciting way to connect with fellow bookworms while enjoying the outdoors with a furry friend.

"Books and Barks is a fantastic way to meet new people, spend time in nature and talk about books," said Jake Miller, Librarian, Adult Programming. "Bring a comfy pair of shoes and some reading suggestions!"

The book club meets on May 4, June 1, July 6 and August 3 from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Lemoine Point Conservation Area. Registration is required and can be completed at <https://calendar.kfpl.ca> or by calling 613-549-8888.

Participants will meet at the Cloverdale Drive park entrance and walk in small groups of three or four on Lemoine Point's trails.

Per the City of Kingston Bylaw 2021-166, dogs must be kept on a leash when not on their owner's property unless in a designated off-leash area. There are no maximum leash lengths, and all dogs within the City of Kingston, including rural areas, must be licensed.
