FOR RELEASE MARCH 10, 2023

Spend an hour with Iain Reid at KFPL and Queen's in-person Bookmarks event

Join the Kingston Frontenac Public Library (KFPL) and Queen's University Library for an unforgettable in-person reading and Q&A session with Iain Reid, one of Kingston's impressive literary stars.

The event will be held on March 31, from 2-3 p.m. at the Central Branch, Meeting Room 1. Registration is required to attend.

Reid's books, including We Spread, Foe, The Truth About Luck, One Bird's Choice and I'm Thinking of Ending Things, are a fascinating journey into the human psyche, exploring themes like love, loss, identity and the mysteries of the universe. Reid's I'm Thinking of Ending Things was recently adapted as a Netflix film.

"KFPL and our partners at Queen's have been thrilled to present sessions with some of Canada's best authors over the last year," said Jake Miller, Librarian, Adult Programming. "This is the first in-person instalment of our Bookmarks Series and we couldn't think of a better way to celebrate than with one of our region's literary giants."

Register online at <https://calendar.kfpl.ca/event/8117126> or by calling 613-549-8888.
