Make a Will Month presentation guides first steps in securing one's future

November is Make a Will Month, a time to emphasize the importance of making wills and understanding the process. The Kingston Frontenac Public Library (KFPL) is helping make the first steps to securing one's future easier with a Make a Will Month presentation.

In this informative presentation, Ryan MacNeil, in partnership with the Ontario Bar Association (OBA), will delve into the components of a will, the powers of attorney, and what happens without a will, ensuring that everyone, regardless of their stage in life, has access to valuable information.

"Making wills and dealing with estate planning may seem overwhelming, but they are crucial for your financial future," said Jake Miller, Librarian, Adult Programming. "When you attend this presentation with Ryan and the OBA, you'll learn the essentials and gain the confidence to take control of your financial planning."

The presentation takes place from 2-3 p.m. on November 24 at the Isabel Turner Branch. Registration is required and available at <https://calendar.kfpl.ca/event/9418361>.
