KFPL Live: Ancestry Library Edition and More

Kingston Frontenac Public Library’s local history and genealogy librarian, Jo Stanbridge, will discuss the Ancestry Library Edition database and other research tools to help build your family tree.

Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 PM at the Isabel Turner Branch. For adults. Registration opens November 4.

Books and Beers

Every month we will gather to enjoy a refreshing beverage and discuss books and other media in relation to a monthly theme. We will provide a short list of titles for your consideration, but feel free to come gab about anything that has got you excited, whether it fits with the theme or not! For adults. Drop in.

Wednesday, November 29, at 6 PM at The Grad Club, located at 162 Barrie Street. The November theme is Genre.

Live at the Library: Shoestring Opera

Through the power of music and the magic of make-believe, Allegra and Papageno embark on an adventure of sharing and self-discovery involving a four-legged, two-winged, fire-breathing dragon, the scary Queen of the Night.

Saturday, November 18, at 2 PM at the Isabel Turner Branch. For families with children ages 4 and up. Free tickets are required.

Get the Lead Out: Monthly Manga, Comics and Writers' Workshop

New mini-projects each month will help you hone your writing and drawing skills. Bring your own projects and materials, and work creatively in an encouraging, open studio environment.

Information for Parents and Caregivers

If your child is 6 years old or younger, it is expected that you will accompany him or her to our programs.

If your child is 7 to 11 years old, you must remain in the library while he or she attends our program.

For Registered programs only, parents of children ages 9, 10 and 11 years may leave the building if they have provided staff with emergency contact information.

If your child/youth is 12 years or older, they may visit the library independently and may act as a caregiver for younger siblings.

For Free Ticket events, tickets will be available at the branch one hour before show time. Limit of 6 tickets per person.

For Drop-in events, admission is first come, first served.

The Library is unable to accommodate groups at registered or drop-in programs for children. Groups include classes, daycares, daycamps, community groups, and any groups providing childcare and/or educational/recreational services to children.
