Registration for early fall storytimes begins on Saturday, September 3 at 9 AM. Visit online at www.kfpl.ca/programs-and-events or call 613-549-8888 for locations, dates and times. Pick up our P.A. Day flyer for details on events for the whole school year.

Claymation at the Central Branch

Make animated Claymation movies! Over three weeks, design and create sets and clay figures, develop storyboards and film movies. Filming will be done in small groups of 2 or 3, with one iPad per group. Bring your story ideas and we will provide the rest! Registration opens on Saturday, September 3. Register for one or both sessions.

Central Branch – Session 1

Tuesdays at 6:30 PM running from September 13 to September 27. For ages 8 to 13.

Central Branch – Session 2

Tuesdays at 6:30 PM running from October 4 to October 18. For ages 8 to 13.

LEGO My Library

Come build and explore with our LEGO and DUPLO. All materials provided.

Isabel Turner Branch

Wednesdays at 6 PM running from September 14 to October 19. For ages 2 and up. This is a drop in program.

Campfire Crew

Join the award-winning Andrew Queen and Campfire Crew for their highly interactive children's concert – Fairy Tale Mash Up! The Campfire Crew sign their hearts out bringing old favourites to life while creating original kids' music that inspires silliness and singing.

Saturday, September 17 at 2 PM at the Calvin Park Branch. For children of all ages. Tickets required. Free tickets will be available at the branch one hour before show time. Limit of 6 tickets per person.

Kingston WritersFest: What is Peace?

Kingston-area artist Wallace Edwards has produced a stunning, thought-provoking look at peace. What is Peace?, an illustrated book for children is engaging, delightful, and powerful, blending whimsy and sophistication. Join Wallace as he reads and signs books at this reception co-hosted by Scholastic Canada and PeaceQuest Kingston, a co-presentation of Kingston WritersFest and KFPL.

Thursday, September 29 at 5 PM at the Central Branch. For all ages. This is a drop in program.

TEDxIsabelTurnerBranchLibrary

September is a time of new beginnings, with children returning to school, music lessons, sports and clubs. But many grown-ups feel the same tug in the fall. Explore ideas about the joy of learning and creation; we'll screen some of the best TED talks on these topics. Get inspired, ask questions, connect!

Tuesday, September 13 at 7 PM at the Isabel Turner Branch. For adults.

Book Club with a Difference

Join us for a relaxed conversation as we share thoughts about the books we are reading or have recently enjoyed.

Thursday, September 15 at 12 PM at the Storrington Branch. For adults.

Science Literacy Week – September 17 to September 24

Join KFPL as we celebrate Science Literacy Week with programs for all ages. KFPL at Little Cataraqui Creek Conservation Area. What Is Statistics, Anyway? Fabulous Fossils! Introduction to Geology. Check out our website for full program details.

Heidegger and the Jews

Donatella Di Cesare presents a public lecture as part of Queen's Brockington Visitorship, exploring the effect of Heidegger's anti-Semitic world view on his philosophy.

Tuesday, September 27 at 7 PM at the Central Branch. For adults.

Anne Frank A History for Today International Traveling Exhibition from Anne Frank House, Amsterdam

Anne Frank's story is revealed through images and words, encouraging visitors to consider the effects of prejudice, discrimination, exclusion and violence. Open to all ages, recommended for adults and youth in grades five and up.

Presented in partnership with Anne Frank House, Amsterdam through the generous sponsorship of anonymous donors.

Running September 26 to November 26 at the Central Branch. Please visit our website for exhibition hours.

Information for Parents and Caregivers

If your child is 6 years old or younger, it is expected that you will accompany him or her to our programs.

If your child is 7 to 11 years old, you must remain in the library while he or she attends our program.

For Registered programs only, parents of children ages 9, 10 and 11 years may leave the building if they have provided staff with emergency contact information.

If your child/youth is 12 years or older, they may visit the library independently and may act as a caregiver for younger siblings.

For Free Ticket events, tickets will be available at the branch one hour before show time. Limit of 6 tickets per person.

For Drop-in events, admission is first come, first served.

The Library is unable to accommodate groups at registered or drop-in programs for children. Groups include classes, daycares, daycamps, community groups, and any groups providing childcare and/or educational/recreational services to children.

For more information visit our website.

Holiday Information

All branches of the Kingston Frontenac Public Library will be closed on Monday, September 5 for Labour Day.
